

Transcript 1.8: The team set off through the forest

The scene opens with a shaky handy cam that's just been turned on. It's dusk.

JON:

OK ... is that it on?

ANDY:

It's on, yeah.

JON:

Alright, good, 'cos we need to keep a record of this. Andy, you, Anna and myself are going to lead the advanced team. We're going to go and begin close-up surveillance of Log Inc's HQ. We're going to leave a team behind at base camp to send updates to the UK.

Any questions? OK, let's go.

The advanced team move into the dense forest.

ANNA:

Shh! What was that?

JON:

What?

ANNA:

I heard something moving, I think we're being followed.

They pause. And listen; only hearing the sounds of the forest. Camera pans to JON.

JON:

It's probably nothing. Stay low, keep quiet.

They move off.

We see shots through the undergrowth – a hidden viewfinder is following the team.

Fade to black.
