

RESOURCE 4:3 THE PRIME NUMBERS ON STAGE!

The band comes onto the stage where they are met with cheers from the crowd.

LEAD SINGER: Hello Torbury!

CHEERS FROM CROWD

We are The Prime Numbers and this song is called 'Heads get twisted.'

They start playing. Halfway through, the crowd start trying to get onto the stage. Two security guards are trying to keep them back but finally people get through and onto the stage.

A boy grabs the microphone from the lead singer and the band is forced to stop playing.

A security guard radios for assistance on his walkie talkie.

ALEX: This is Main Stage Security to Control, over.

We hear a muffled reply from the Walkie Talkie:

We hear you Main Stage, over.

ALEX: We have an incident with The Prime Numbers. We need to initiate Operation Humming Bird immediately. I'll get the lead singer into position, over.

Muffled reply:

Received and understood. We'll be there right away, over.

The lead singer is being jostled by the people on the stage. The security guard enters, pushes the trouble makers out of the way and helps the lead singer into the marked area and gets him into a harness ready to be winched to safety.

The sound of helicopter blades is heard overhead. A rope is dropped down and is clipped to the singer's harness and he prepares to be winched away by helicopter. We see the helicopter flying off, leaving the stage and the festival behind it.
