MAVIS:

Help FSS! The cows have got out and they're wreaking havoc! They got into the main stage field and all that's left of the stage is a pile of planks and rubble. I don't know what to do! The headline act will be arriving soon and we don't have a stage for them to play on! Can you help to build a new one? We don't have time to get in any equipment – we'll just have to use what's on site!

Thanks FSS. Must go. Bye!
